

Workers Comp Explanation for Company Owners

The officers of a corporation are automatically included for coverage on a workers comp. insurance policy unless they elect to be excluded. The owner of a sole proprietorship or partners in a partnership are automatically excluded unless they elect to be included. Owners of an LLC are automatically excluded from coverage unless they elect to be included.

This website includes an exclusion form for officers of a corporation who wish to be excluded and an inclusion form for officers or owners of a sole proprietorship, partnership, or LLC who wish to be included for workers comp. coverage.

These forms can be downloaded but must be notarized when signed.
Call Checkmate for any additional information